In Remembrance of Betty Hook

Betty Hook, honorary member of the Pomona Valley Art Association passed away on November 8, 2005 at the age of 85. Betty was a self-taught artist who painted and taught art up to her final year of 85. She was a realist, whose portraits and wildlife paintings were crisp and life-like. Her paintings in oil, acrylic, pastel and watercolor are in permanent exhibits and numerous collections throughout the United States.

Betty's impact on her students is not only felt now but will be felt in years to come. These artists will continue to record their life experiences and express their emotions from the lessons taught by their tenacious teacher.

Betty's beautiful smile and can-do attitude will be missed by all. It has been said by those who knew her best, "Betty will be painting in Heaven".

The Judge for the November Monthly Show was Bill Runyan. Bill was a photographer for The Colton Courier and the San Bernardino College newspaper. He was a photography instructor for 4H in the 70's and 80's. Mr. Runyan also sculpts in wood and stone. He is also a silversmith and enjoys making jewelry. Bill and his jewelry creations can be found at Cruise Night in Fontana at the Fontana Art Association Booth at Arrow and Nuevo Streets in Fontana every first Friday of the month.

Pomona Valley Art Association Members: The following are PVAA's Proposed By-laws. Due to the number of changes the by-laws are printed here in their entirety. These by-laws will be voted for approval at the January 2006 Board Meeting. Please review these by-laws and if you have any questions or changes that you feel are needed please come to the meeting and voice your concerns. You can also e-mail the editor with proposed changes and comments.
