The Southland Christian Schools Gala at the PVAA Art Place Proves to be Rollicking Success!

Friday's Southland Christian School Student Gala was spectacular! One year ago, PVAA member Karla Kelman, artist and instructor at Southland Christian Schools, had a vision to feature local and international student work at The PVAA Art Place. Karla's vision was realized last week when over 150 works of art from students at Southland Christian School and China's sister school were featured in an Art Exhibition at The PVAA Art Place.

On Friday, April 21st over 200 exhibit visitors enjoyed Southland Christian School's Gala, which was complimented with Hors d'oeuvres and entertainment from performing student vocalist and musicians. The Gala was a rewarding and inspirational experience enjoyed by those in attendance.

It was truly our honor and privilege to engage our community and to carry forward PVAA's mission of "Bringing Art to Life".
