PVAA 2017 'BEST OF SHOW' Ribbon Awarded to May Mar

May Mar is shown with watercolor portrait which garnered her the BEST OF SHOW award in PVAA's Annual Open Juried Show displayed at The PVAA Art Place located in Montclair Place.

May Mar was born in Northern China, grew up in Taiwan and came to United States in 1965 for advanced study.

She started art lessons in 2005 after retiring from a career as a computer programmer for twenty years. May says, "it's strange how life takes unexpected curves in the road. Drawing and painting has never been in my life and has now become my passion. My study in art began with drawing and then advanced into oil painting." May attended workshops by Ellen Pendleton, Qiang Huang, Karen Werner and Martha Cowan. In recent years she studied watercolor with Hanna Adler. Through those workshops, she improved not only her technique, but also broaden her view.

May is a member of the Associated Artists of Inland Empire, Chaffee Community Museum of Art and Pomona Valley Art Association. May has since met many wonderful artist friends shared their passion, got their advice and guidance in her self-discovery journey to art. It is her hope that she can express herself and feelings through her painting with this new state of awareness.
