Jan Wright Garners Coveted BEST OF SHOW Award at PVAA Annual Open Juried Exhibit

Long-time PVAA member, Jan Wright, has received the BEST OF SHOW award at our annual open juried show. Her watercolor titled TOMORROW was entered in the show as a mixed media painting.

Jan uses color to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary. Although she primarily paints landscapes, her portraits of people and animals, her abstracts, and records of her imaginary journeys to enchanted lands are displayed in local, regional and national shows. Her work has appeared at the Japanese American National Museum in LA as well as venues in Rhode Island, Washington State, Houston, Vernon and San Antonio, Texas, and Missouri.

Jan has received numerous awards including Best of Show at the Art Council of San Bernardino County in 2005. The Texas Watercolor Society awarded her signature membership as well as the Oppenheimer Foundation Award in 2007. She received her signature membership in the Missouri Watercolor Society in 2010. She has been juried into Watercolor West in 2002 and 2005, receiving awards both times as well as exhibiting work in the National Watercolor Society Member Show in 2004 and 2010.

Her work has appeared in many juried shows throughout California in. She is a juried member of Women Painters West and has served as an officer on the boards of National Watercolor Society, Mid-Valley Arts League and the Pomona Valley Art Association.

Association Art Library Now Available For PVAA Members

The books are on the bookshelf located in the corner of the Art Place art & workshop classroom. Don Markofski has generously donated more than 30 art and art-related books to get the library started and has subsequently volunteered to serve as the the coordinator.

This is a SELF-SERVE, members-only service with a binder containing the library book list and user friendly sign-out page. PVAA members can take out books for up to three weeks at a time.

Members having art books they would like to donate should place the book(s) on the shelf, then eMail Don Markofski at: dMarkofski@hotmail.com so the book(s) can be dutifully added to the master library book list.
