DECEMBER 2012

The PVAA 31st Open Juried Show Was a Tremendous Hit!

Our Annual Open Juried Show was a real success. The prestigious artist and judge, Marciano Martinez, compared the exhibition favorably to leading national shows. This is a wonderful testimonial to the hard work and dedication of the entire PVAA OJS Committee.

Michi was born in Osaka, Japan and in 1958 came to the United States, and subsequently settled in Santa Maria, California.

She began painting with watercolor some twenty years ago and found watercolor to be both a challenging and intriguing medium. Like many artists, she enjoyed workshops and classes from many excellent artists, Milford Zornes, Henry Fukuhara, Eric Weingard, Ruby Wang, Chris Van Winkle and Tom Fong to mention a few.

Michi declares, "Painting gives me a great joy, because it is one way to honor the Lord who created the whole world and by his mercy gave me the talent. I hope my paintings will bring enjoyment to people who happen to come in contact with them".

Michi Ikeda Takes BEST OF SHOW Honors

Michi Ikeda, one of our many talented members, captured the coveted, BEST OF SHOW award. Michi is a very accomplished watercolorist. Her painting of an old, weathered barn was a very deserved winner.

The creative adult is the child who survived.

The creative adult is the child who survived after the world tried killing them, making them "grown up". The creative adult is the child who survived the blandness of schooling, the unhelpful words of bad teachers, and the nay-saying ways of the world.

The creative adult is in essence simply that, a child."
